

Manfredo Montagnana

He has been President of the Unione Culturale Franco Antonicelli in Torino over the last ten years.

As a member of the Turin City Council from 2001 till 2006 he worked in the Cultural and in the City Planning committees.

Local and national leader in the CGIL School, University and Research Trade Unions.

From 1961 till 1971 he taught mathematics in the Universities of Turin and Genova. From 1971 to 1998 he kept lessons in Analysis, Geometry, Mathematical Applications in Economy at the Turin Polytechnic where he sat in the Administrative Council and was Director of the Didactics Service Centre of the Faculty of Architecture.

In 1969-1970 he carried on research work in the Math-Stats Department of the University of California in Berkeley.

From 1940 to 1948 he lived in Australia so that English became his mother language.